CPLC's Parenting Arizona Honors Champions for Children

2011 Honorees: Children's Benefit Foundation, Captain Shane Doan of the Phoenix Coyotes and Arizona State Senator Kyrsten Sinema

Phoenix— Parenting Arizona, a program of Chicanos Por La Causa, Inc. (CPLC), is delighted to recognize the outstanding work of three dedicated members of the Arizona community who will be honored this Friday, March 25 at the 5th Annual Champions for Children luncheon.

"All three honorees are exemplary leaders in the child welfare industry," said Parenting Arizona Executive Director Julie Rosen. "They have dedicated their life's work to improving children's lives."

For nearly two decades, the Children's Benefit Foundation has promoted wellness and preventative care for children. As a parent and a successful athlete, Shane Doan understands the responsibility of being a great role model to his children and our youth. He reaffirms his commitment to improving the lives of children through his charitable endeavors. Throughout the years, be it as a social worker, attorney, teacher, community advocate or legislator, Kyrsten Sinema has positively impacted the well being of children and their families in Arizona.

"For the past five years, Parenting Arizona has recognized remarkable individuals and organizations at Champions for Children," said Rosen. "Our ultimate goal is to increase awareness of the enormous need that still exists in terms of eliminating child abuse."

The Champions for Children luncheon is the annual fundraising event for Parenting Arizona, a program of CPLC, which provides statewide multi-cultural family support and parent education services to reduce and prevent child abuse and neglect. The event helps to provide necessary funding for education and classes that can be life changing for the participants, as they learn positive and collaborative methods to best raise their children.
